10.32.080 Permit Parking--Private Driveway.

Parking in front of a private driveway shall be allowed only when a vehicle has prominently displayed on the front dashboard a valid parking permit which includes the address of the owner or lessee of the private property, at which the vehicle is to be parked. Permits are valid only at the address contained upon the permit, and is effective while the holder owns or leases the property for which the permit is issued. Permits may be revoked without notice or hearing if it is determined that parking authorized by the permit creates traffic safety or other public health and safety problems. Vehicles creating a traffic hazard may be towed pursuant to Section 10.12.150(B).

Permit does not authorize parking on a sidewalk in violation of California Vehicle Code Section 22500(f).

Requirements to obtain a permit are:

1. Proof of current residency at, or ownership of, the Hermosa Beach property for which the permit is requested or a current business license at the location for which the permit is requested. Current meaning within the 30-day period preceding the date application is made for the Driveway Parking Permit.
2. Payment of fee as determined by Ordinance 84-762. $44 9/08
3. Verification that the applicant's registered vehicle(s) has no outstanding parking violations.
4. Driveway must be to a legally established dwelling unit or legally established commercial use structure.
5. The length of the vehicle utilizing the privileges granted by said permit shall not extend beyond the width of the driveway at any point. The width of the driveway shall be that portion between the curb slopes, measured at the street level. Vehicles extending beyond the width of the driveway at any point are subject to citation.

Exceptions:

1. Where signs are posted restricting parking for any other reason, i.e., NO PARKING THIS SIDE, etc. or during certain hours.
2. Entrance to driveway on alleys.
3. Driveways to multiple dwelling parking spaces or multiple commercial use parking spaces.

I, the undersigned, have read and understand the above statement.
